

(2) Any person who practices the sale or fitting of hearing aids shall deliver to any person supplied with a hearing aid, a receipt that shall contain:

- ;
- (a) the licensee's signature, address of regular place of business and license number; it shall also show the make and model of the hearing aid furnished along with the full terms of the sale clearly stated; if the hearing aid is not new, the receipt must clearly show whether the hearing aid is used or reconditioned, whichever is applicable in terms of any guarantee; the receipt shall also show that the purchaser was advised that the licensee was not a licensed physician and that the examination and recommendation was made as a hearing aid dispenser or fitter and not as a medical diagnosis or prescription; the receipt shall also include language stating that each prospective purchaser was informed at the time of the initial examination for possible sale and fitting of a hearing aid about hearing aid options that can provide a direct connection between the hearing aid and assistive listening systems in accordance with the latest standards for accessible design adopted by the United States department of justice in accordance with the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended. Each licensee and purchaser must initial acknowledging that counseling for the above-mentioned options took place and that the purchaser was informed concerning these options, and whether the hearing aid(s) contain(s) a tele-coil or t-switch;
- (b) the information regarding the trial period which shall be a minimum of 45 consecutive days; if the 45th day falls on a holiday, weekend.....